Quick Search

(This is the search box in the top header that automatically appears when you open the database.)

- Primary search is a keyword search
- You can search by specific journal, author, volume/issue

1. To search, you type a keyword into the "All Fields" box. You can narrow the search down by putting in a specific "author", "journal/book title" or volume details.

2. Once you have filled in the information you have or want to search by, click on the "Go" button on the right side of the box.

Search

(This is the search you see when you click on the tab at the top marked "search".)

- This is a more advanced search than the Quick Search.
- You can choose the search term (by keyword, author, title, ISBN, etc.)
- You can limit to books or journals, year of publication or specific journals.

1. To use this search, click on the "Search" tab in the header.

1. Put in your search terms in the box marked "terms".

2. You can keep the default setting to "All Fields". You can also search by other terms by selecting one of the options in the drop down box.

3. Once you have entered your search terms and used the appropriate drop down options, click on the "Search" button located under the search form.

The screenshot shows the ScienceDirect search page in Microsoft Internet Explorer. The search form includes fields for 'Term(s)', 'Author', 'Volume', 'Issue', and 'Page'. There are dropdown menus for 'within' (set to 'All Fields') and 'Source' (set to 'All sources'). A 'Subject' dropdown menu is open, showing options like 'All Sciences', 'Agricultural and Biological Sciences', 'Arts and Humanities', and 'Biochemistry, Genetics and Molecular Biology'. The 'Dates' section is set to 'All Years' from '1999' to 'Present'. A 'Search' button is located below the form. A 'Search History' section is visible below the search form.

Please note: the "Quick Search" box will still be located at the top of the page.

Quick Browse

1. The browse on the left column allows you to browse journals by title or by subject.

The screenshot shows the ScienceDirect home page. The 'Quick Search' box is at the top. Below it, the 'Browse' section is highlighted, showing '9,928,386 Articles'. The 'Browse by title' section includes an alphabetical index (A-Z, 0-9). The 'Browse by subject' section is expanded, showing two main categories: 'Physical Sciences and Engineering' and 'Life Sciences'. The 'Physical Sciences and Engineering' category includes sub-categories like 'Chemical Engineering', 'Chemistry', 'Computer Science', 'Earth and Planetary Sciences', 'Energy', 'Engineering', 'Materials Science', 'Mathematics', and 'Physics and Astronomy'. The 'Life Sciences' category includes 'Agricultural and Biological Sciences', 'Biochemistry, Genetics and Molecular Biology', and 'Environmental Science'. A 'Quick Link that article now' banner is visible. Below the banner, there are sections for 'Quick Links', 'Favorite Journals / Books', 'Quick Links in ScienceDirect', and 'Quick Links on the Web'.

1. Once you have selected a subject, you can further narrow the search by full-text or abstract. Then choose a specific journal to browse.

The screenshot shows the ScienceDirect search results page for 'Chemistry'. The 'Browse' sidebar on the left includes options for 'Full-text available' and 'Abstract only'. The main content area displays a list of 590 titles found in 'Physical Sciences and Engineering > Chemistry'. The list includes titles such as 'Acta Physico-Chimica Sinica', 'Activated Carbon', and 'Additives for Polyolefins'. The 'Quick Search' box at the top is empty, and the 'Journal/book title' field contains the text '-This Journal/Book-'. The 'Volume', 'Issue', and 'Page' fields are also empty.

2. Once you have selected a journal and/or specific volume, you can use the "Quick Search" box to narrow your search to a specific subject or keyword.

1. When you chose a journal, you will see a table of contents that allows you to browse through specific volumes and the articles within those issues.

The screenshot shows the journal page for 'Acta Physico-Chimica Sinica'. The 'Quick Search' box at the top is empty. The 'Journal/book title' field contains the text '-This Journal/Book-'. The 'Volume', 'Issue', and 'Page' fields are also empty. The page displays a table of contents for Volume 24, Issue 12, Pages 2153-2262 (December 2008). The table lists two articles: 'Dynamical Spin Chirality and Magnetoelectric Effect of α -Glycine' and 'Preparation and Characterization of TiO_2 Nanotube Arrays via Anodization of Titanium Films Deposited on FTO Conducting Glass at Room Temperature'. The 'Quick Search' box is highlighted with a red box, and the 'Table of Contents' section is highlighted with a blue box.

Browse

(This is the search you see when you click on the tab at the top marked "browse".)

1. To use this feature, click on the "Browse" tab in the header.

You can browse by journal or subject.

The screenshot shows the 'Browse Journals and Books' page. The left sidebar contains a 'Browse' section with options: 'Journals/Books Alphabetically', 'Journals/Books by Subject', and 'Favorite Journals/Books'. There are also filter options for 'Full-text available', 'Abstract only', 'Journals and Book Series', 'All Books', and 'Reference Works only'. The main content area displays a list of 8714 titles found, with columns for 'Journal/Book Title', 'Subscription Details', 'Content Type', 'Article Feed', 'Favorites', and 'Vol/Issue Alerts'. A callout box with an arrow points to the 'Browse' sidebar.
